RELIGIOUS EDUCATION PARENT COMMITMENT FORM

As a parent, you are the primary teacher for your child's faith formation. You have decided to register your child for Religious Education classes. The assumption on the part of the pastor, Faith Formation staff and volunteers is that you are now ready to keep the following parent commitment:

1. Bring your children to Mass each week.
2. Make sure that your children attend their Religious Education classes.
3. During your child's "sacrament year" your presence at the Parent Sacrament meetings are required.
4. Teach your child his/her prayers.
5. Prior to the reception of first Communion and Confirmation, bring your child to Confession.
6. If you have been awarded a payment plan, please keep to your payment agreement. The St. Dominic Religious Education program is unable to absorb your tuition debt. If a payment is delayed you will be contacted by a member of the parish Finance Commission. Negligence in paying tuition will result in the withholding of your child's certificate.

I have read, I understand, and I intend to commit myself to my child's faith formation. If I choose not to comply I realize that my child's sacrament reception could be delayed.
